Cures Woman's Weaknesses.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonias Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator * * * makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "in Helonias we have a medicament which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhœa; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhœa, suppressed or absent monthly periods, arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and anæmic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says:

"It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions * * * and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root:

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

"Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhœa (painful menstruation)."

Catarrh

To prove unquestionably, and beyond any doubt, that Catarrh of the nose and throat can be cured, I am furnishing patients through druggists, small free Trial Boxes of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure. I do this because I am so certain, that Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure will bring actual substantial help. Nothing certainly, is so convincing as a physical test of any article of real, genuine merit. But that article must possess true merit, else the test will condemn, rather than advance it. Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure is a snow white, healing antiseptic balm, put up in beautiful nickel capped glass jars at 50c. Such soothing agents as Oil Eucalyptus, Thymol, Menthol, etc., are incorporated into a velvety, cream like Petrolatum, imported by Dr. Shoop from Europe. If Catarrh of the nose and throat has extended to the stomach, then by all means also use internally, Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Stomach distress, a lack of general strength, bloating, belching, biliousness, bad taste, etc. surely call for Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

For uncomplicated catarrh only of the nose and throat nothing else, however, need be used but

THE HAYWOOD TRIAL.

In the last stages of the case against William D. Haywood, now on trial in Boise, Idaho, the prosecution put six witnesses on the stand yesterday to rebut the evidence of the defense. Three testified to conditions in Coeur 'd Alene in 1899 and three to the situation in Colorado during the strike period of 1903 and 1904. The important witnesses of the day were called to contradict the showing made by witnesses for the defense that there was no reason for the calling out of the militia of Colorado other than a desire on the part of the mineowners to drive members of the Western Federation of Miners from the mining district. One witness flatly contradicted the evidence introduced by the defense to show that the explosion at the Vindicator Mine was due to an accident.

Edward Alvard, a physician of Burke, one of the mining towns of the Coeur d'Alenes, swore that he saw Orchard on the day of the blowing up of the concentrator at Wardner, and that he came from the train returning from Wardner. This train was in possession of the mob, that blew up the concentrator and killed two men. Alvard's evidence contradicted the witnesses for the defense, who said they saw Orchard playing poker on that day at Mullen, several miles away. The claim of the defense is that Orchard was not at Wardner and had no part in the riot.

A. T. Holman swore in rebuttal of the testimony of Thomas Wood, a witness for the defense. Wood said that he saw Beck and McCormick, the two men killed by the explosion at the Vindicator mine, in the eighth level before the explosion, and afterwards found their bodies in the sixth level. He said that Beck carried a revolver on that day, and that he saw a box of powder on a water barrel in the eighth level just before Back and McCormick went up to the sixth, where the explosion occurred a few minutes later. The impression created was that the two men carried the powder with them, and that Beck dropped his revolver, which exploded and the powder went off. This would also account for the finding of the shattered parts of a revolver near the bodies. Orchard swore that he fired the powder with a pistol.

MURDER OF A BOY.

The wide extent of the plot which caused the kidnapping and subsequent strangling of Walter Lamana, the Italian boy, in Hahnville, La., developed in yesterday's testimony in the trial of four of the alleged murderers.

Several persons in addition to the ten indicted were connected with the plot by two witnesses, Leonardo Gebbia and Mrs. Peter Lamana, the murdered boy's mother. Gebbia, who turned States evidence, told of overhearing the agreement made in jail between Campisciano, the most important prisoner on trial, and another Italian whose name was not given. In return for giving a home to Campisciano's children if he should be arrested or hanged, Campisciano promised not to implicate this man in any way.

The boy's mother was placed in the witness chair while her son's clothing, introduced as evidence, was before the jury. She sobbed and shouted at the four prisoners:

"Oh, you murderers! You dogs!"

Then she implicated several members of the Gebbia family, of New Orleans, as go-betweens to secure the $6,000 ransom. She said that the aged mother of this family had told her that the boy was not dead, but that the ransom must be paid if she ever wished to see him alive.

Jennie Gariffo, a pretty Italian girl, said that she and relatives had heard the kidnapped boy screaming: "Oh Charley!" and "Oh, Mamma!", in a house near the Campisciano's, and that they had set out to learn what was the matter. Mrs. Campisciano came out of her house and stopped these would-be investigators, assuring them that the boy was only calling the cows. The witness also saw the boy taken into Campisciano's house and saw him escape, pursued by a man, who carried him back with one hand over the child's mouth.

Four other witnesses corroborated her testimony.

Deputy sheriff Weaver testified that a well-constructed ambush had been made about Campisciano's house, so that those on the premises could watch the road without being seen.

HAD TWINS THRUST UPON HIM.

John Wood stood in front of his livery stable on 48th street, New York, Monday looking very lonesome. A young woman came up and asked him if he would look after two fine boy babies in a go-cart. She had them with her. She said that Mrs. O'Connor would give a man a quarter for wheeling the babies there, and that she was too tired to wheel them any farther.

It looked easy to Joe, and he started off for 63d street, and after the various misadventures which befall a bachelor when he has a couple of babies thrust upon him, reached the 63d street address, but a house to house search failed to discover Mrs. O'Connor or any one willing to claim the twins. A passing patrolman advised Miller to take his trouble to the west 68th street station, which he did. Unless the owner turns up the babies will be sent to Bellevue. —[New York Tribune.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 17, 1907.

THE approaching change in the system of inspection of the baggage of passengers returning to this country from a trip abroad is most desirable. The present method of herding the returning tourists in the cabins during the last day out compelling them to make a sworn statement in minute detail and then immediately rummaging their trunks to see whether they have told the truth, is humiliating as well as full of traps for the unwary. If an inspection is to follow anyway the oath is superfluous; if the oath be regarded as efficacious to prevent fraud then there is no need of an inspection. Either one or the other of these formalities might be dispensed with; and the Treasury Department's new rules will, after August 15, dispense with the oath, substituting in its place a simple and easily understandable declaration of facts which may be made and handed over to a designated ship's officer at any time during the voyage.

THE special grand jury to investigate the riots in Roanoke of last Saturday night when a mob wrecked all the Greek restaurants in town, yesterday heard 30 witnesses and is continuing its work today. All the smashed restaurants but one re-opened yesterday. In his message to the City Council last night Mayor Cutchin recommended that a committee be appointed with full power to take up the question of damages and make such reparation as is just and settle the same without delay, and in this way, "convince the government, both State and national, that Roanoke can and will settle the matter according to justice and right, not taking advantage of any technicality, and in this way redeem the good name of the city as much as possible." This is no more than the city should do, for the work of the mob was most disgraceful and unnecessary.

ALL immigration records in the history of the country were broken by the aggregate returns for the fiscal year of 1907, which ended on June 30 last. The total number of alien immigrants landed in America during the year was 1,285,349, as against 1,100,735 landed during the fiscal year of 1906. The increase during the past year was about six per cent. over the greatest number of immigrants that ever arrived in America heretofore in a single year. It is feared that many of this vast hoard of foreigners will prove most undesirable citizens.

ACCORDING to the annual report of President Nicholls, of District No. 1, United Mine Workers, read at yesterday's session of the union in Wilkesbarre, Pa., 21,000 mine-workers have been dropped from the rolls of the organization because they failed to pay their national assessment. The men claim that their assessment is more than they can pay and that most of the money goes to "walking delegates" who toil not neither do they spin and who are constantly bringing about trouble in the mining districts.

AFTER the trials in the Police Court were over this morning the Commonwealth's Attorney said to a complainant that the policemen who failed to do their duty in making arrests should be reported to the Board of Police Commissioners and be dismissed from the force, and that the citizens should see to this. Well, were this carried out, there would be several vacancies on the force.

IN THE course of his speeches he is making for the senatorial nomination, Governor Vardaman, of Mississippi, has declared that he "would rather be living in the South under the stars and bars of Jeff Davis than under the glorious Stars and Stripes of Theodore Roosevelt." And the Governor is not alone in his choice.

GOVERNOR HUGHES, of New York, has signed the bill placing a limit on campaign expenses of candidates for office. This is a good law and should be strictly enforced. This thing of buying office has reached the limit and should be stopped at all hazard.

From Washington.

[Correspondende of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, July 17.

Has the administration's intentions to send a monster battleship fleet to the Pacific this fall been abandoned? That no orders looking to the dispatch of the Atlantic fleet to the Pacific have reached the Navy Department, despite Secretary Metcalf's postive statement that the ships would be in San Francisco harbor next winter, is a fact confirmed by acting Secretary Newberry's friends. There is reason to believe that in his office, at least, there is considerable doubt whether it was ever contemplated that the fleet should make the voyage. On the other hand, in the Bureau of Navigation, it is admitted that Admiral Brownson, the chief, knew of the plans to send the fleet to Pacific waters before Secretary Metcalf left Washington. It is stated at the Navy Department today that absolutely no preparations are being made to provide the immense amount of coal that would be required, nor to specially provision the ships, which would, of course, have to be done. This work will take considerable time and forethought, and if the fleet is to sail next October, as has been announced, some activity might be expected at the department. All is still, however. Naval officers, especially some of the elder ones on the retired list, are chuckling over the discovery of the peculiar condition of affairs, through which it is possible for the head of the Navy Department to make announcement of most important movements while those who must make the necessary preparations to carry such orders into effect, are left in official ignorance.

Andrew John, an Indian, 59 years old, died at the Emergency Hospital this morning from an attack of hemorrhage. He was taken ill yesterday. He was formerly president of the Seneca tribe and had been coming to Washington on business for the past twenty years.

There is nothing in the dispatches that have reached the State Department during the last few days to corroborate the report from the city of Mexico that Central America is preparing for war and that within the next ten days that whole territory will be the scene of hostilities The story had it that Guatemala and Salvador, and certain forces in Honduras, are preparing to fall upon Nicaragua in an endeavor to put President Zelaya out of business.

The appeal of Count Boni De Castellane from the decision of the court on Nov. 14 last granting a divorce to the Countess Boni De Castellane (formerly Miss Anna Gould, of New York,) was dismissed yesterday afternoon in Paris and a final decree of divorce duly entered.

Charles A. Edwards, secretary of the democratic congressional campaign committee, was yesterday arraigned before Justice Anderson in the District of Columbia Supreme Court, to answer an indictment charging an assault upon Alexandro Garland, of the Peruvian legation. Mr. Edwards, after entering a plea of not guilty, was released on his former bail of $2,000. He will not be placed on trial until the fall term of the Criminal Court, and his case may be longer delayed, because of the crowded calendar.

The luncheon given at Paris yesterday at the Elysee by President Fallieres to Rear Admiral Charles H. Stockton and the officers of the cruisers Tennessee and Washington, now at Brest, was made more notable than it had been expected to be by the extremely cordial manner in which Fallieres toasted the United States and his warm protestation of France's inextinguishable friendship for America. While this sort of talk has been very familiar at Franco-American reunions on both sides of the water, it is not without significance that Fallieres took occasion to reiterate it at this naval dejeuner, at the time of all the Japanese-American war talk and immediately after the formation of the Franco-Japanese entente. Rear Admiral Stockton made a felicious reply.

W. P. Shelton, for 16 years treasurer of Hanover county, has handed his resignation to Judge J. E. Mason, of the Circuit Court. Judge Mason refused to accept the resignation at first, and when Mr. Shelton informed him that he was tired of office and wanted to retire to his farm he reluctantly consented to allow the old officer to retire. S. J. Doswell of Ashland, was designated to succeed Mr. Shelton, and will be a candidate for the office at the expiration of the term.

VIRGINIA SHOTS AT TEAM MATCH.

Colonel C. A. Dempsey, the United States army officer now stationed in this city, is doing all in his power to insure for Virginia good representation of marksmen at the national team match, which is to take ploce at Camp Perry, O., beginning August 28th.

This State is entitled to have twelve militiamen and three alternates in the contest, and the government foots all bills.

In order to procure only the best men a preliminary shooting match is to be held at Williamsburg August 13th. Each company is entitled to enter one man in this tournament, and those making the highest scores will be selected for the contest at Camp Perry.

Colonel Dempsey is putting forth unusual efforts to look after the interests of the Old Dominion, but he has not worked without difficulties. The militiamen experience great trouble in getting off from their work. Their employers are unwilling for them to lose time from their regular duties and interpose all sorts of obstacles.

The programme for the tournament in which the Virginians are to shoot is as follows: From 600 to 200 yards skirmish run, 20 shots; 200 yards at rapid fire, 10 shots in 20 seconds; 200 yards slow fire, 10 shots, 1 shot a minute; 600 yards slow fire; 800 yards slow fire and 100 yards slow fire.

The prize is $300 and a handsome trophy to be held for a year.—[Richmond Journal.

NEW MAYOR FOR SAN FRANCISCO

Dr. Edward R. Taylor, physician and lawyer, dean of the Hastings Law Collage, and of the University of California, was elected Mayor of San Francisco yesterday by the Board of Supervisors, and by the open avowal of the bribery graft prosecution the socalled "reign of the big strick" came to an end.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Explosion on the Georgia.

Boston, July 17.—Who is the hero who sprang into the flames to close the hatchway leading from the upper turret of the Georgia?

The name of this man may never be learned, even though it is sought by the President of the United States.

As soon as it became known that President Roosevelt inquired about this man, search was begun among the swathed and groaning victims at the Naval Hospital, but thus far the authorities there have been unsuccessful.

That one of the sailors in the turret did spring to close the hatch of the powder hilt to prevent the flames from causing explosions in other parts of the ship is vouched for by Captain McCrea who received the story from some of the survivors. Since to perform his deed of bravery the unknown hero had to throw himself into the heart of the flame, there is little doubt that he is one of the six who died before the Georgia reached the Charlestown navy yard.

No more deaths have occurred since that of Seaman Edward J. Walsh late yesterday which brought the total number of victims up to nine.

Of the five others hovering near death not one is expected to hold out more than three or four days. Midshipman Cruz was reported to be dying last night, but later rallied and this morning appeared to have a fighting chance.

Most of the injured are kept under the influence of opiates to relieve the agony of their fearful burns.

Trouble in Persia.

Berlin, July 17.—Civil war threatens Persia. The quarrel between the new Shah and the new parliament has reached a crisis which may plunge the country into civil war. This is the situation as described by the usually conservative newspaper Tageblatt. Parliament is demanding that on July 25, the anniversary of the granting of Persia's constitution, that the Shah shall take a public oath to observe the constitution and respect the rights of parliament. This the Shah absolutely refuses to do. The monarch's programme contemplates an exactly contrary course. He has announced that he will forcibly dissolve parliament and imprison all deputies who resist. Doubt as to the outcome of the struggle arises from the fact that no one can tell which side the army will champion. The troops will dominate the situation. Ordinarily they could be relied upon to loyally support the Shah, but in view of the fact that the ruler is largely in arrears in paying the men, the sympathies of many are with parliament and they may desert the cause of the monarch for that of the legislature.

Experimenting on Airships.

Berlin, July 17.—Germany has solved the problem of construcing successful airships. Experiments now being conducted by army officers with the new machine are said to have proved far superior to any similar device ever invented. Army officers claim that the new invention will completely revolutionize modern warfare. It is claimed for the new airship that it can carry a crew of several men, a number of quick firing guns to protect it from attack by other airships, while it principally would drop explosives upon the camp of an enemy or on a city. The new machine consists oi a cigar-shaped balloon carrying an aluminum motor. The lifting power will raise six men and four rapid fire guns. The ship responds readily to its helm and it is claimed that in maneuvers it has maintained a speed of thirty miles an hour against the wind.

Experts declare the new machine is far superior to the French airship. Patrie for which so much has been claimed and that Germany's control of the invention will make her practically the military master of the world.

Hau on Trial.

Carlsruhe, Germany, July 17.—Carl Hau, professor of Roman law in the George Washington University, at Washington, D. C., was brought into court today to answer the charge of killing his mother-in-law, Frau Molitor, at Baden-Baden, on November 6. His arraignment marked the beginning of what promises to be one of the most sensational murder trials of the century.

His wife dead, having committed suicide since his incarceration, his child kept from him, he has only the comfort of a few friends who have rallied to him. The indictment charges Hau with having shot Frau Moliter for the purpose of securing her fortune of $250,000 which was to go to Mrs. Hau on her mother's death. As it is known, however, that the evidence against Hau is only circumstantial, and some of it of the flimsiest character, the reading of the indictments did not create the sensation expected.

Krupp Steel Works,

Berlin, July 17.—The great Krupp Steel Works threatens to surpass American trusts in the enormous profits of its business. For the year just closed the Krupp factories yielded a profit of $3,500,000. These figures as well as other interesting statistics of the great industry, are contained in the annual report made public today. It shows that the Krupps employ 54,354 laboring people and that the average wages of this army of employes was $1.50 a day. Some idea of the company's enormous operations is given by figures showing that 2,500,000 tons of coal were consumed during the year. In addition to the great profits $1,700,000 was paid out to employes in sick and disability benefits, old age pensions, and insurance benefits. The concern also maintained thirty-one hospitals, alm houses, workmens houses and other institutions of employes.

Suicide of Druggist.

New York, July 17.—Constant experimenting upon new inventions was given today as the only explanation for the suicide of Charles Waloneck, a Brinx druggist, who was found dead early today at the Hotel Imperial, where he registered on Monday at "Charles Tavigan, Buffalo". When found his body was sitting at a table. Beside it was an empty vial that had contained morphine and another containing bicholrie of mercury. Considerable comment has been caused by the failure of the hotel authorities to notify either the police or coroner. It is said he had died of heart disease, but the coroner thought differently and announced he would hold an autopsy.

The Rights of Railways.

Nashville, Tenn., July 17.—President W. W. Finley, of the Southern Railway, in a speech at the Board of Trade outing this afternoon, made reply to criticisms of the company's action in appealing to the courts for protection from the new State regulation. He declared that the agitation initiated to secure the correction of railway abuses, which he endorsed, had accomplished its results, and was now being carried to the point of enacting legislation endangering railway credit. He demanded that the constitution be observed and that the effort of States to legislate for what amounted to confiscation of property, should cease. Among other things, he said. "If a law were passed by the legislature, contrary to the constitution, taking from a man his home, or interfering with his lawful enjoyment of it, there is no one of our fellow citizens, thus deprived, who would not ask, through the courts, the protection of the constitution for his lawful rights, and in this case, too, every good man would applaud his action and would uphold his hand. If, however, there is legislation enacted, contrary to the constitution, taking from a railway company its property, or interferring with its lawful enjoyment of it, and an effort is made by those charged with the responsibility for the property, to obtain for it, in the courts, constitutional protection, there are those who declare that this is a defiance of the popular will. It is called, in some quarters, an arrogant refusal to accept a popular verdict, and instead of a firm and determined insistence on constitutional protection for these interests, the railway manager is confronted, as I say, in some quarters, with denunication, with obstruction, with threats of reprisals and with efforts at intimidation."

The Suspected Banker and Wife.

Clifton, Ill., July 17.—Chicago expert chemists began an analysis today of the contents of Mrs. "Pet" McGill's stomach to determine whether she died by choloroform, self administered, as her husband, Cashier H. McGill, of the Worner National Bank, asserts, or whether some other person ended her life. Instructions from States Attorney Campbell, who will bring McGill and his young bride from San Diego, Cal., to face charges of murdering the banker's first wife, and five Chicago detectives sworn in as DeWitt county deputy sheriffs will meet the prisoners in Chicago help to smuggle them into Clinton and watch them constantly until their trial is over.

With MacGill and his wife will come the former's beautiful 18 year old daughter, Maguie, who as her dead mother's confidant is relied upon by the prosecution, should she recover from present states of collapse for testimony which will send her father to the gallows and by the latter's friends to tell a story which will insure his early release.

The case promises to be one of the most remarkable ever tried in the west. In the dock will be MacGill and his 18 year old wife Fay MacGill, whom he wedded but little more than a month after the first Mrs. Magill's death.

The Examination of Col. Ayres.

New York, July 17.—An examination by army surgeons into the mental and physical condition of Lieut. Col. Ayres, ordered before a special examining board to decide whether he shall be retired for physical disability, is in session here today. They will report their findings to the full board tomorrow. The examination is being conducted in private.

The only public work of the board today was to authorize Major Guy L. Edie, surgeon and Captain O. H. Wadhams, Assistant Surgeon, to examine Colonel Ayres. Other members of the board are Brig. Gen. J. M. K. Davis, Col. C. A. P. Hatfield, and Lieut. Col. Wm P. Evans. Col. Ayres appeared before the board and was granted permission to object to any of the examiners. He expressed his satisfaction with the members, however. There was no mention at the hearing of the sensational West Point experiences of Mrs. Ayres, who has been barred from the military reservation there, although it is generally believed the movement to retire Col Ayres grows out of his defense of his wife in which he gave an interview to newspapermen criticising certain army officers. Mrs. Ayres did not appear at the hearing although there were reports that she was preparing to do so.

The New York Mayoralty.

New York. July 17.—The recount bill under which W. R. Hearst seeks a review of the votes cast in his controverted New York mayoralty fight with Mayor McClellan, was declared unconstitutional today in the appellate division of the Supreme Court First district. In deference, however, to a conflicting opinion on another law point the same case by the second department of the Supreme Court, no action was taken toward making permanent the temporary injunction preventing Hearst from acting under the law. The matter will be left open pending a decision before the Court of Appeals.

Menelik Warlike.

Rome, July 17.—Italy is threatened with a war by King Menelik of Abyssinia. This is the information coming from the Italian colony of Erythrea in Africa. Menelik is raising an army of 20,000 men for the ostensible purpose of restoring order in that section of Abyssina close to the border of the Italian Somaliland, but this is regarded as a mere pretext for massing troops near the dividing line. An attack on some Italian town is expected by the colonists in Somaliland in the near future.

Big Pearl from a Clam.

Bangor, Pa., July 17.—While she was grinding a quantity of raw claims in a machine for chowder Miss Myrtlestock, a domestic servant in Bowers & Groner's restaurant, discovered that some hard substance refused to be crushed. It proved to be a large pearl, valued at least $300. A local jeweler offered $250, but it will be sent to a New York jewelry house. The servant is elated over her find. The pearl is so perfect that at has attracted wide attention.

The Haywood Trial.

Boise, Idaho, July 17.—The Haywood trial is gradually nearing its close. Today's session is expected to practically complete the rebuttal evidence. The defense will then open in rebuttal. It has but few witnesses to put on the stand, maintaining that the State has wholly failed to make out a case against Haywood. Arguments will begin late in the week.

The Telegraphers.

New York, July 17.—Health Commissioner Darlington was drawn in a threatened telegraphers' strike here today when the local union filed with him a complaint against the Western Union Telegraph Company for placing fifty cots and one hundred mattresses in the general office building.

The complaint sets forth that the company has violated the lodging house law, and asks that an investigation be made. The Health Department will act upon the complaint to the extent of making an investigating immediately.

Little information concerning the West was received this morning, but it was generally believed the move was made in anticipation of a strike.

"The local situation is worse than ever before, as the result of the summary dismissal by the company of Samuel Jolly," said Secretary McInery of the local union today. Jolly was in the employ of the company for twenty years, and was one of the most popular men in the union. He was first reduced and then when he did not give up his membership was simply dismissed. When he asked for a reason he was told that none was stated.

The action of the company in dismissing Jolly is looked upon as an effort of the company to force the issue. It is asserted that the officials of the company believe they can withstand the strike, and that they are as well prepared for it as the union men claim they are.

Chicago, July 17.—Gossip among telegraph operators today was that the executive board of the International Commercial Telegrapher's Union had decided in San Francisco that President Small was not justified in calling the strike there, that he exceeded his authority and that the union men who struck would have to take care of themselves. According to the report, the executive board declared that a strike in another city would not be called.

Investigating Accident.

New York, July 17.—An inquiry was begun by the authorities today into the third avenue "L" wreck in which fifty persons were injured last night, several so seriously that they will probably die. Both trains were jammed to the gates with people who had been attending the Feast of Our Lady of Carmel in Harlem's "Little Italy." The first train, south bound from 100th, street, was just starting when the second crashed into it from the rear. Instantly the third rails started a fire in the wreckage. Braving danger of electrocution, scores leaped to the "L" structure. Women and children, of whom there were hundreds in the throng, were knocked down and trampled on in the excitement. The hospital physicians' reports indicate that several of the victims of the accident cannot recover. Motorman Williams gave himself up to an ambulance surgeon and will be held pending completion of the investigation.

Following an investigation of the 106th street "L" wreck, the precinct police have reported to headquarters that the disaster was caused by a riot at the forward end of the rear train, the combatants crowding into the motorman's box and making it impossible for him to control the brakes or lever. Two persons have had both legs amputated as the result of the accident and it is feared six or seven others will not live through the day.

Watterson's Battle Cry.

Louisville, Ky., July 17.—"Back to the constitution," is the battle cry which Henry Watterson is raising for the democratic hosts in 1908. He enunciated his creed, which in part follows:

"I believe in the constitution of the United States strictly construed as the ark and covenant of our free institutions I believe in co-ordinate branches of the federal government as the sure safeguards against the usurpation of power with which history makes us familiar, as the rocks upon which freedom has been so often shipwrecked. I believe in the maintenance of the federal power and the state power, unimpaired in their several functions, national and local, the one sustaining the other, both subservient to the organic law of the land."

Mr. Watterson believes that the tariff and trust questions should be the chief issues of the democrats. He says that it would be nothing more than insanity for Roosevelt to become a candidate, and predicts that Taft will be the republican nominee.

Mr. Watterson will not name his "dark horse" for President, but says he will whisper the name into W. J. Bryan's ear whenever the Nebraskan asks him to do so. He declares that no one can win without Bryan's backing.

Attacks on Little Girls,

New York, July 17.—Two new names were added today to the list of girl victims of barbarous atrocities practiced in and about New York city. Dyker Heights, Bath Beach and Bayridge communities are aroused today over an attack upon Olla Schramek, 8-year-old daughter of Augustus Schramek, one of the rich residents of Dyker Heights. The child was picking berries in a field when her sister saw two men seize her and carry her into the woods. A searching party was formed and the child's insensible body was found in a clump of bushes. The similarity to the case of Amelia Staffeldt, who was murdered near Elmhurst, L. I., has caused much comment. The case of little Lena Greenblatt reported to the police is similar to the Staffeldt attack, and redoubled efforts will be made under the belief that these attacks may have been made by the same man or men.

Girl Thinks Dog is Sea Serpent, Faints.

Atlantic City, July 17.—Miss Minnie Reybold, a young woman visitor from the West, was scared into convulsions in the surf by a dog which she took for a sea serpent. The dog swam past her on top of a big wave, and the girl, who had read of sea serpents, was so badly scared by what she supposed to be a real sea snake that she had to be rescued by life guards.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Grand Lodge of Elks.

Philadelphia, July 17.—Beyond the victory of John K. Temper, of Charlori, Pa., who has won because overwhelming odds the office of Grand Exalted Ruler of the Grand Lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, the results of yesterday's election in the Academy of Music were still unknown at 1 p. m. when the ballots were still being counted.

In almost every case outside that of Tener the contest has been so close and the results carry so much importance that the tellers are proceeding very slowly and carefully.

Asked whether he thought there would have to be a new vote over the Grand Trusteeship in the Grand Lodge today, Secretary Robinson declined to say.

New balloting to pick three of the grand trustees from the six candidates may, however, be necessary.

Benjamin F. McNulty, of Texas, and Thomas McNulty, of Baltimore, were candidates. It is said hundreds of ballots were simply marked McNulty.

The fight between John W. Wagner, of Kansas City, and Edward Leach, of New York, for the grand treasureship especially excited deep interest.

All the New York men are perfecty sure Leach will be announced a winner. The Kansas men swear Wagner has won it.

To date the following officers have been elected: John K. Tener, of Charleroi, Pa., Grand Exalted Kuler; Fred C. Robinson, of Dubuque, Ia., Grand Secretary; Bayard Gray, of Frankford, Ind., Grand Lecturing Knight.

The greatest feature of the day will be the monster feat of 3,000 musicians tonight.

When the band reached the grand stand at the north side of the City Hall, the strains of "Aul Lang Syne" fell upon the ears of the multitude as if it came from a gigantic instrument.

The Hague Conference.

The Hague, July 17.—The United States won a victory over England, Russia and France combined today when the American proposal providing for the indemnification of private property seized at sea during war was adopted by the committee to which it was referred to by a vote of 21 to 11. Germany, Austria and Italy, comprising the triple alliance, supported the United States.

While the vote in committee was decisive it is doubtful whether the international conference, in pleniary session, will approve the proposition owing to the possibility of three nations which are opposed.

England as the greatest maritime power, able probably to inflict more damage on an enemy's sea commerce than any other nation, regards the proposition as directly limiting her activities in the event of war and will oppose the proposal to the end.

Arrest of Acid Throwers.

New York, July 17.—Mourning over his many troubles and revolving in his mind the wisdom of ending them and his life with the contents of a bottle in his hand, John Martin, a tinsmith, was aroused from meditation early today by a smart kick on a particularly tender corn. Martin had been sitting in the dark at the foot of a perch on west Fortieth street and it was not unnatural that Peter C. Branch, a visitor from Bridgeport, Conn., could have stumbled over the foot as he passed. Branch started to apologize, but Martin would not be appeased. "This for yours," he exclaimed, and dashed the contents of the bottle into Branch's face and eyes. The bottle contained hydrochloric acid. Branch was taken to the Roosevelt hospital. He will not lose his sight, but is suffering greatly. Martin was arrested. He gives his depressed mental condition and the pain of the kick on his corn as his excuse.

Stricken at His Post.

Cleveland, O., July 17.—Hundreds of lives were imperiled yesterday, when Floyd E. Webber, engineer of a fast westbound Lake Shore passenger train, was stricken unconscious at his throttle and the train sped almost into Cleveland, Ohio, without a guiding hand. The engineer was overcome by the intense heat. As the engine rocked into the Cleveland yards over the switch points the motion threw the engine driver from his seat to the floor of the cab. Then the fireman learned what had happened. He jumped to the engineer's seat, leaving his companion helpless on the footboards while he brought the speed of the train down within the yard limits.

Webber's condition was found to be critical. How long the engineer had been unconscious at the throttle is not known.

The fiscal year just closed was a record-breaker in the matter of immigration, the number of aliens landed during the year reaching 1,285,349.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." CLERK'S POWER TO PROBATE WILLS IS CHALLENGED.

The constitutionality of the act allowing court clerks to probate wills is to be tested. The issue is involved in a suit filed yesterday in the chancery court. The action was filed by Rev. T. Crump and W. Crump Tucker, representing W. R. Smith against H. A. McCurdy and others. It is set forth in the bill that Sarah C. Borwell, of Richmond, died in May, 1906; that McCurdy, as executor, produced before the clerk of the chancery court a paper alleged to be the will of the deceased; that the clerk, after hearing testimony of subscribing witnesses, entered an order admitting the will to probate. His right to do so under the law is not questioned, but the constitutionality of the act giving him the power is challenged. The case will probably be heard at the October term. —[Richmond News Leader.

PASSING OF THE ARK.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA,
GOVERNOR'S OFFICE.
Richmond, Va., July 15, 1907.

Hon. Samuel G. Brent, Commonwealth's Attorney, Alexandria, Virginia.

My dear Sam: Enclosed you will find copy of a letter from the Private Secretary of Governor Warfield, which explains itself, in regard to the gambling boat which is anchored each Sunday in the waters of Maryland opposite the city of Alexandria. Please keep me posted in reference to this matter, as I am anxious to co-operate fully and completely with you and the citizens of Alexandria in getting rid of this nuisance.

With kind regards, I am,

Very truly yours,
CLAUDE A. SWANSON,
Governor of Virginia.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Annapolis, Md., July 13, 1907.

His Excellency, Claude A. Swanson, Governor of Virginia, Richmond, Va.:

My Dear Sir: This morning I communicated by telephone to Governor Warfield, who is at his home in the country, the contents of your letter of July 9th, in reference to the gambling boat which is each Sunday anchored in the waters of Maryland, opposite the city of Alexandria in your State.

His Excellency instructs me to say to you that he will take the matter up at once with the Sheriff of Prince George's county, and will endeavor to have immediate action taken looking to a correction of the conditions complained of. I have today written to the Sheriff, and hope that relief will soon be afforded the citizens of your State.

Very truly yours,
ROBT. S. HART,
Secretary to the Governor.

It is semi-officially stated that Governor Warfield of Maryland has directed the sheriff of Prince George's county to have the ark removed from the river, and that the sheriff has notified the proprietors of the boat to close it at once. Should they fail to do so force will be used to carry out the order.

FORFEITED HIS COLLATERAL.

The intersection of Wilkes and Fairfax streets was again a storm centre about nine o'clock last night when a young man living in the neighborhood approached a young married couple who were sitting in front of their door and knocked both down. In their fall two children who were near by were also knocked down. The latter screamed, and as there were many little ones innocently playing in the vicinity at the time, anxious mothers were soon rushing from every direction. Fortunately a policeman was on the way to his home at the time and he arrested the assailant who was later released on collateral. A hurry call had in the meantime been sent to the station house and Chief Goods repaired to the scene with a squad of police, but there was no further disorder. The trouble was the outcome of a trial in the Police Court at 7 o'clock yesterday evening. The young man and young woman who were assaulted had been the plaintiffs in a case of disorderly conduct in front of their house between 2 and 3 o'clock last Sunday morning, and the accused were fined. One of the men who had been fined later proceeded to the home of the complainants and after a colloquy made the double assault. The assailant failed to appear when the case was called and forfeited his collateral.

ENJOYED HIS VISIT.

Rev. C. D. Bulla, pastor of the M. E. Church South, has received the following letter from Governor Swanson:

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA,
GOVERNOR'S OFFICE.
Richmond, Va., July 15, 1907.

Rev. Charles E. Bulla, Alexandria, Va.:

My Dear Mr. Bulla. I am just in receipt of your letter of the 13th instant, which I have noted. I cannot tell you how much I enjoyed my visit to Alexandria and the kindness and courtesy shown me. I am delighted that I accepted your invitation. The work you have done there is wonderful and I hope it will be followed in other sections. Express to Mrs. Wood, and the other members of her family, my appreciation of the courtesy extended me.

With assurance of regard and esteem to yourself and family, I am,

Your friend,
CLAUDE A. SWANSON.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

William Irvin Brooke, formerly of Brooke, Md., yesterday, in Washington, filed suit for divorce from his wife, Mrs. Mae S. Brooke, nee Parrish, naming a co-respondent.

The parties were married in Alexandria on September 18 last. Mr. Brooke alleges that on October 31 following Mrs. Brooke sued him for a limited divorce and for maintenance, and he was directed by an order of court to pay her $10 a month pending the settlement of this suit, which, he states, he has since paid. He further alleges that Mrs. Brooke deserted him and is at present living at Falls Church.

Mr. Brooke met his wife while she was a telephone operator at the Arlington Hotel, in Washington, and their marriage followed a very brief courtship.

ARREST OF WASHINGTONIANS.

Richard Cook and Fritzy Fletcher, both from Washington, were arrested yesterday evening at Princess and Lee streets on the charge of cruelty to a horse which they were driving. The woman left $25 collateral for her appearance this morning, and Cook was locked up. The woman failed to appear when the case was called and forfeited her collateral. Cook was fined $10.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION.

A civil service examination was held at the postoffice building today for the positions of clerk and carrier in the postoffice service. Seven persons presented themselves for the examination, six male and one female—all white.

Mr. H. C. Ansley has returned from Chicago where he went to attend a meeting of the Treasurers Association of America. He was accompanied by his two sons and his daughter, Miss Anne Ansley.

Miss Laura E. Smoot has gone to Bedford City to spend the summer.

Mr. J. B. Duncan is seriously ill at his home at the intersection of Mt. Vernon and Lloyd avenues in the county north of this city, and in consequence, with the consent of the county supervisors, the road at that place has been roped to prevent the passing of vehicles. Mr. Duncan is being attended by two physicians who say he must have absolute quiet.

Mr. James Marmaduke, who has recently been an officer on the steamer Newport News, has been appointed captain of the ferry steamer Lackawanna.

Mrs. W. J. Boothe has gone to Spencerville, Md., to spend a part of the summer.

Mrs. Wm. H. Wood left yesterday for a visit to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Trixey Fletcher, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct and with cruelty to a horse, forfeited $25 collateral. Richard Cook, who had been arrested as a party to the offense, was fined $10.

Morgan Moore, charged with assaulting Mr. and Mrs. Albert Magalis, forfeited $20 collateral by failing to appear.

Sallie Timbers, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

Malinda Level, colored, suspected of larceny, was held for further examination.

At a special session of the court held last night Robert Evans and Morgan Moore, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each, and the former was put under bond in the sum of $50 for good behavior for ninety days. He was also fined $5 for contempt of court, for calling a witness a "liar."

AWARDED CONTRACT.

Mr. J. D. Knight, contractor and builder, has been awarded the contract for the building of the Fairfax Apartment House to be erected on the northeast corner of King and Columbus streets. The demolition of the old building was commenced this morning, and the work will be pushed as rapidly as possible. Mr. Knight left this morning for Philadelphia on business appertaining to this work. This will be one of the largest structures that has been erected in this city for years and it will prove to be a great improvement to that section of the city. Mr. Knight deserves much credit in taking hold of such a contract as this and the citizens are glad to know that the contract for the work has been kept at home; also that their are competent men in Alexandria to build any class of buildings that may be erected here. All wish Mr. Knight every success in his contract.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.

About four o'clock this morning two negroes broke the glass in the window in Mr. James Roche's store, on King street, near Washington, for the purpose of removing articles therefrom. The noise they made attracted the attention of a neighbor and he arose from his bed and started after the would-be thieves. The latter ran and Officers Knight and Lyles, who were in the vicinity, gave chase. One of the darkeys had but one leg, but he proved fleeter than his companion, who was captured by Officer Knight. He gave his name as Oscar Nichols, said he was from Culpeper county and now lives in Washington. He also said he and his companion left the latter city at 12 o'clock last night and walked to Alexandria for the purpose of visiting relatives. Nichols was sent to jail for four months. The one-legged negro was captured in Washington today.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

Chairman Bendheim, of the city democratic committee, has called a meeting of his and of the county democratic committees for tonight at 8 o'clock at the Fleischmann Hotel to fix upon a time and date for holding a primary to nominate a candidate for the House of Delegates. So far as known Mr. J. R. Caton the present incumbent has no opposition.

It is quite impossible to describe these waists in detail, as there is such a variety of models, trimmings, etc., that it would be more confusing to our readers than otherwise. Suffice it to say they are splendid merchandise, both in quality and make. We advise early selection.

FINED FOR SNORING.

Theophilus Burton, a negro coachman, went to a Baptist Church in Hackensack, N. J., last Sunday night, and during the sermon fell asleep. He snored so loudly that no one could hear the pastor. Deacon Austin poked him in the ribs and woke him up. It made Burton angry and he swore violently. The startled pastor told some one to get the police. Thinking there was a riot, the chief sent out all his reserves. Burton was hurried before Justice Heath. When asked why he had slept in church the coachman innocently replied: "The best of us does that, your Honor. Go to that church and you'll see a lot more of 'em doing it." He was fined $10 and sent to the county jail for thirty days the justice remarking that he might snore there undisturbed.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

WHOOPING-COUGH PARTY.

Mrs. W. H. Parker, of Duquesne Heights, Pa., gave a "whooping cough" lawn fete Tuesday evening in honor of her son Georgie, who is one of about 5,000 children in the city so afflicted. There were many guests, and the manner in which the children whooped was noteworthy. Mrs. Parker gave prizes for the one who "whopped" the longest and loudest, and a booby prize for one who had only reached the wheezing stage. There were refreshments, but a creosote mixture had to be served to keep the children from "whooping" at the table. Because it was such a success, several similar parties are being arranged.

How to Cure Chilblains.

"To enjoy freedom from chilblains," writes John Kemp, East Otisfield, Me., "I apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Have also used it for salt rheum with excellent results." Guaranteed to cure fever sores, indolent ulcers, piles, burns, wounds, frost bites and skin diseases. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.
